Let Your Voice Be Heard Community Forum

Join us on June 28th, 2017 at 7:00pm at Three Masks Inc. (1023 W. Colonial Dr.) for our 10th Let Your Voice Be Heard Community Forum and come let your voice be heard! Since last year we have been meeting monthly to speak on issues we see plaguing Central Florida and implementing real solutions to combat them. Every voice is valued and no one is silenced in our meetings. We have formed youth outreach, youth mentoring, community peace walks, community workshops and more from our past forums and have been the change we want to see. This month we are discussing initiatives such as our Community Care Fair taking place July 8th, 2017 at the Central Florida Fairgrounds and our community peace walk taking place on July 1st, 2017 in the Pine Hills Neighborhood. Also, we are discussing issues such as neighborhood watch, changes we want to see on the local level and ways we can make changes on our own. The forums are a place where everyone's input is valued and we are here to discuss significant issues. The Let Your Voice Be Heard, Inc. overview will take place for 30 minutes with an hour after for the open floor. The focus is not to just have us discuss what we're doing but to hear what we all need to be doing together.

Our Community Peace Walks are not protests or demonstrations in any shape or form but simply a way for the community to gather and provide information about important resources and opportunities in Central Florida. We will conduct surveys and align residents with professionals in certain fields that can service their needs. We will spread awareness about upcoming community events that are beneficial.
